In Memoriam

Due to the recent death of President George H. W. Bush, we would like to share with you a letter that the President sent to Anne Kaestner of Bible Believers Fellowship, Inc. The letter was written about the time of "Operation Desert Storm," the war with Iraq.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 22, 1991

Dear Ms. Kaestner:

Thank you for your thoughtful message. I was very moved by your heartfelt comments about what we and the international coalition are trying to achieve through Operation Desert Storm.

When Saddam Hussein rejected all diplomatic efforts to withdraw from Kuwait, I called on our Armed Forces, in cooperation with those of our coalition partners, to restore liberty to the Kuwaiti people. I am so grateful that our courageous troops face this historic challenge knowing that they have the support of millions of people around the world and that we are all tremendously proud of the job they are doing.

I am heartened that so many Americans are joining Barbara and me in praying for our brave service men and women and for their families.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Ms. Anne Kaestner
